In addition, HPU hosts an MLK worship service and Day of Service at 13 different non-profit locations. Furthermore, HPU continually hosts complimentary community events including speakers such as John Maxwell, Rob O'Neill, Malcolm Gladwell, and Seth Godin; the NC Symphony; Greensboro Symphony; Arbor Day Celebration; Veteran's Day Luncheon; Community Prayer Breakfast; NCAA Division I Athletics; and many other events that are open to the public; and

833 MONTLIEU AVENUE, HIGH POINT, NC 27262 336.841.9000

WHEREAS, HPU is currently celebrating the 90th anniversary of the University's founding in the City of High Point. Initially, College Drive was established in the 1920's at the time when the College was being built. In 1992, High Point College's name changed to High Point University. Since 2005, High Point University has transformed itself from a regional college to a nationally recognized university while partnering with this City to brand High Point, NC as a University Town; and

WHEREAS, the a vast majority of cities in the United States, who are home to other major universities, have designated roadways as University Parkway (to honor their university's positive impact on their cities) along HPU's 80,000 visitors annually who use GPS systems to guide them from all across the United States and Canada to HPU's campus.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we, the undersigned, support amending the name of College Drive to University Parkway, support a one-year delay on this implementation so that residents and business owners have ample time to prepare for this change, and acknowledge that High Point University has soundly offered to fund all of costs for the street signage associated with this change.
