PURPOSE:

The newly adopted bylaws of the reorganized downtown development organization (new name pending) call for the appointment of a City Council Person to that Board.

BACKGROUND:

With the reorganization that was approved by the City Project Board last week, all but two Board positions were filled. Of the two vacancies, one is an at large position that is currently in negotiation and the other is a City Council Appointee. The Mayor and/or their designee is one political appointment and the other is to be a City Council person. Staff will be represented on the Board by Greg Demko, Randy Hemann and Mike McNair.

BUDGET IMPACT:

RECOMMENDATION / ACTION REQUESTED:

The Mayor has recommended the appointment of Chris Williams to the newly reorganized Downtown Development Board as the City Council appointee.
