Interests & Experiences

Please list any work, volunteer, and/or educational experience that you would like us to consider in the review of your application.

BFA Kendall College of Art & Design in Furniture Design Study included Historic Preservation and architecture. My career in furniture design requires I have an ability to visualize spatial relationships. Able to read and draw building elevations. Experienced in most aspects of residential construction including foundations, framing, plumbing, electrical, roofing, painting, finish carpentry, etc. Have restored and assisted in restoring historic buildings including one in the Montford neighborhood of Asheville. Strong interest in history and architecture. I have been self-employed for many years and do not have an up to date resume. If needed I can write one.
