I have lived in High Point for six years, in the Emerywood/Roland Park area, in a home built in 1921. When we were considering what area to live in we were attracted to the unique architecture of the historic homes in the older section of Emerywood. I also work at a historic property, the Briles House on North Main Street, I feel that it is important to preserve the history of our community. In my former community, Waxahachie, Texas, I was a president and served on the board of Historic Waxahachie for six years. I also was employed by the company that oversaw the restoration of the historic Ellis County Courthouse, a Texas landmark, a learned so much about the proper ways to restore, not just renovate, structures. I have also recently joined the High Point Preservation Society board.
