PURPOSE:

Recognition of the Human Relations Commission Humanitarian Award recipient

BACKGROUND:

The High Point Human Relations Commission Humanitarian Award was created to honor a High Point citizen who has made significant contributions to human relations in High Point over his or her lifetime. Some of the criteria for which the nominees will be evaluated are his or her commitment to the promotion of equity, respect, goodwill among citizens and contributions that benefited traditionally underrepresented individuals and diverse groups. The award will be presented during the City's Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Celebration.

BUDGET IMPACT:

No funds requested

RECOMMENDATION / ACTION REQUESTED:

The Mayor and Council are requested to recognize the 2019 Human Relations Commission Humanitarian Award recipient.
