

Office of the Mayor
City of High Point
North Carolina
Resolution....

- WHEREAS, It is the desire of the Mayor and City Council to recognize Angela G. McGill for the contributions she has made to the City of High Point through her work at the High Point Housing Authority (HPHA); and
- WHEREAS, Ms. McGill served in the U.S. Army prior to attending High Point University where she received both her Bachelor of Science and Master of Business Administration degrees. In 2003, Ms. McGill began her career with the HPHA serving in various capacities before being promoted to the position of Chief Operating Officer. From this position, she accepted the office of Executive Director of the Rockingham Housing Authority, in Rockingham, NC; and
- WHEREAS, Ms. McGill returned to the HPHA in November 2010 to serve in her current position of Chief Executive Officer. Ms. McGill made history by becoming the HPHA's first female to head the agency since its inception on January 4, 1940. In addition, she was a former program participant of the Housing Authority in which she now serves as the CEO; and
- WHEREAS, Ms. McGill currently serves on the CCHRCO Legislative Committee, City of High Point Planning & Zoning Commission, Salvation Army Advisory Board, United Way of Greater High Point, and the Southeastern Regional Council-National Association of Housing Redevelopment Officials (SERC-NAHRO) Legislative Committee; and
- WHEREAS, Ms. McGill has served on the City of High Point Human Relations Commission, Chair; Total Family Focus Board, Vice Chair; Board member of: YWCA of Greater High Point, High Point University Alumni Association, American Red Cross High Point-Thomasville Chapter, Partners Ending Homelessness, Welfare Reform Liaison Project (WRLP), Alcohol and Drug Services (ADS), Carolina Council of Code and Redevelopment Officials (CCHRCO), Commissioners' Support Services & Commissioner Conference Committee, Board of Directors of CCHRCO, member of the Piedmont Study Group, a graduate of Leadership High Point and City Government 101 and a member of National Association of Female Executives; and
- WHEREAS, Ms. McGill has tirelessly served the High Point community with her dedication to its citizens. She has demonstrated leadership, perseverance and has guided the HPHA with distinction and most importantly, she recognizes the importance of empowering girls and women to become strong leaders in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and High Point City Council that this Resolution be presented to Angela G. McGill in recognition of her dedication to the citizens of High Point.

WITNESS my hand and the Corporate Seal of the City of High Point, North Carolina, this the 15th day of February 2021.

Jay W. Wagner, Mayor